

By the Kings Maiesties Commissioners for granting Court Leets.

THE KINGS most excellent Maiesty affecting nothing more then the good gouernment and ease of his louing subiects: A ND vnderstanding that Court Leets were ordayned for the well ordering and good gouernment of the people, and safety of his person, and that many of his subiects are compelled to trauell far from their habitations vnto Leets kept in remote places distant far from them; and that in diuers parts of his Maiesties Realme of England and dominions of Wales, Court Leets are houlden by vsurpation, without law full warrant to hould the same: hath beene graciously pleas- d to grant his Commission vnder the great Seale of England, directed to some of his learned Councell, and others whose names are subscribed, for granting Court Leets in fee simple, vnto all Lords of Mannors, or any other person or persons, and all bodies politique or corporate within England and Wales: A ND likewise to confirme, and new grant, Court Leets houlden or pretended to be holden by any of his Maiesties Subiects, either by Patent or prescription, ouer all, and euery the Tenants, Renters, and Inhabitants within any Mannors, Townes, Villages, Hamlettes, or Parishes within England, and Wales, or either of them, and di-uers benefits ther. vnto belonging as by the Commission may appeare.

The Office is kept at the signe of the Holy Lamb in Flee-street betwixt Saint Dunstons Church and Fetter-lane end in London.
